

SPATIAL AND SIZE DISTRIBUTION OF GIANT CLAMS IN THE KARIMUNJAWA ISLANDS, INDONESIA.

By Delianis Pringgenies¹, Johana Suprihatin² & L. Lazo³

1. Kampus Ilmu Kelautan-UNDIP, Tembalang, Semarang, Indonesia

2. Jl. Kelasi No. 230, Walang Jaya, Jakarta, Indonesia

3. 111-8772 Hudson St., Vancouver, BC V6P 4M8, Canada

ABSTRACT

This study assessed the spatial distribution and size structure of giant clams in the Karimunjawa Islands. Most clams being in groups of 2 to 6 animals. The majority of the clams found were under 16 cm long, indicating that they were in a juvenile stage.