

THE MOLLUSC FAMILY TEREDINIDAE
OF NORTHERN SULAWESI, INDONESIA

Farnis B. Boneka & Gustaf N.F. Mamangkey
Faculty of Fisheries and Marine Sciences, Sam Ratulangi University, Manado 95115, Indonesia

ABSTRACT

A total of 18 species of Teredinidae were obtained from drift wood and wooden panels exposed along the coast of northern Minahasa Peninsula and Sangihe Islands. The pallets of these species are described and illustrated. The species belong to eight genera: Bactronophorus, Uperotus, Teredora, Teredo, Lyrodus, Spathoteredo, Nausitora, and Bankia.